

Marine Insurance

What does Transit Insurance Policy Cover?

Transit insurance policy covers the risk involved in movement of goods against physical loss or damage of the insured's goods in transit from one location to another by any mode of transit, jointly or singly: by sea(all ocean voyages and inland waterways) for export and import; goods sent by post or parcels by courier ; all movement by rail/road and air shipments.

Unique solution ID: #1178

Author:

Last update: 1970-01-01 01:00