

Claim Process

If I am evacuated on grounds of medical reason, can I continue my treatment in India?

If recommended by the claims administrator and subject to the medical sum assured remaining, you can be indemnified in respect of the medical expenses incurred by you within India to continue medical treatment started outside India, immediately prior to any medical Evacuation. The company's liability to make payments shall be limited to a specific period of time which varies from company to company.

Unique solution ID: #1035

Author:

Last update: 1970-01-01 01:00