

Workmen Compensation

How to file claim under the Workmen Compensation Policy?

The injured person or his dependants have to give a notice to the employer to pay Compensation as per the provisions of the Act. Upon the failure or refusal of an employer to give compensation, an application is to be made in Form - F to the Commissioner under the Workmen's Compensation Act, 1923 who is the Assistant Labour Commissioner or the Labour-cum-Conciliation Officer of the area where the accident took place or where the claimant ordinarily resides or where the employer has his registered office. After hearing both the parties, the Commissioner decides the claim amount and orders the Employer to pay the compensation.

In case the Employer has taken the Workmen compensation policy then the Insurance will settle the claim accordingly .
